Marketing and Student Recruitment Policy

This policy includes all brand management and marketing including advertising, student recruitment, marketing events, promotional publications, online and social media marketing and design of corporate materials. MIHE’s approach to marketing and student recruitment must be aligned to the following principles.

- a) MIHE must ensure that the marketing of its services and courses by any authority will be undertaken in a professional manner and maintain the highest integrity and reputation as a registered higher education provider.
- b) Appropriate, comprehensive and most recently updated information for potential and existing domestic and international students on all topics related to courses delivered by MIHE must be made available. MIHE must ensure that all marketing and student recruitment information is ethical, professional, and maintains the standards of Australia’s higher education industry.

- c) MIHE must ensure that no false, misleading or deceptive information is provided to potential and existing domestic and international students. MIHE must ensure that all marketing and promotion activities relating to courses and services provided adhere to the Australian Consumer Law and the National Code of Practice for Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018.
- d) Marketing and promotional materials for student recruitment includes advertising, brochures, flyers, student handbook, social media posts, course guides and MIHE website.
- e) MIHE and all education agents (if education agents are engaged by MIHE) must ensure correct information is provided to all prospective and current students seeking or entering into written agreements with regards to the following:
- Courses offered and delivered at MIHE
 - Entry requirements including language, literacy and numeracy, educational qualifications or work experience.
 - Assessment of advanced standing and credit transfer
 - Calculation of fees and charges
 - Employment outcomes associated with a course
 - Possible migration outcomes
 - Claims of association with any other educational provider
 - Eligibility for acceptance into another course
 - Campus location and general description of facilities, equipment and learning resources
 - All relevant information relating to MIHE (including its courses or outcomes associated with its courses)
- f) All MIHE Marketing staff must ensure all marketing and student recruitment activities including marketing strategies and the related promotional materials are accurate, not misleading and ethical, maintain the integrity and contribute to the positive reputation of MIHE (refer to Marketing Plan for details).
- g) Brand management and all marketing promotional activities including advertising, student recruitment events, promotional publications, online and social media, marketing, branding and design of corporate materials and templates is managed by the Marketing Manager (and the Marketing department that they lead as applicable) representing MIHE's corporate identity.
- h) Students that have started a course at another Higher Education Provider but have not completed their first six months of study in their principal course will not be recruited by MIHE or any of its education agents (if education agents are engaged by MIHE) except under specific special circumstances approved by the MIHE Chief Executive Officer.

For further details refer to the Marketing Plan and Workforce Plan.

The Marketing Manager (and if applicable the Marketing Department led by the Marketing Manager) have the following responsibilities and must:

- a) Ensure brand compliance, including ensuring that marketing and student recruitment, development and implementation are aligned with the marketing approach, tools and materials detailed in the Marketing Plan.
- b) Ensure the implementation of this policy is monitored and complied with by MIHE and all education agents (if used) including clarity and consistency of messages communicated, commitments made, brand management, advertising and the use of the MIHE logo.
- c) Work together with other staff and relevant departments of MIHE in developing, implementing and promoting a unified MIHE brand to ensure consistent messages and themes, as well as identical visual standards, are maintained.
- d) Ensure that consent has been obtained from any student whom MIHE wants to use in their marketing.
- e) Approve the use of MIHE's logo on all materials created and circulated including print and electronic formats for both internal and external stakeholders.
- f) Ensure that MIHE courses or units of study are not described as accredited until such accreditation has been obtained.
- g) Ensure that accurate, relevant and timely information for prospective and current students is available and accessible on MIHE's website. This information must be available to students prior to acceptance of an offer, written in plain English where applicable and accompanied by an explanation of any technical or specialised terms. This information includes, and is not limited to, information to:
 - assist students making decisions about courses or units of study (such as course design, prerequisites, recognition of prior learning, pathways to employment, etc);
 - assist planning for participation in educational and other activities (such as information about orientation program, delivery arrangements, timetables, access to learning resources, ICT, technologies, tools, support, opportunities to participate in decision making and student representative bodies, etc);

- outline student obligations and liabilities such as expected standards of behaviour and adherence to the MIHE Code of Conduct and MIHE Policies and Procedures (such as the Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure); and
- give access to current academic governance policies and requirements (such as admission, recognition of prior learning, progression, assessment, etc).

Monitoring and Review

Marketing and student recruitment advertising and publications will be regularly monitored and reviewed through student surveys, external feedback and internal auditing.
